

Privacy, Terms and Conditions

Privacy

Simplify Prior Authorization (SPA), staff and advisory board members are committed to respecting the personal privacy of individuals who visit our website. Our privacy policy can be summarized as follows:

- Your personal information is protected under the federal Personal Information Protection and Electronic Documents Act (PIPEDA). If you have any questions about your personal information, you may contact our privacy officer; Denise Balch at info@simplifypriorauth.ca or 905 220 4260.
- While this site employs an SSL level of security to safeguard against malicious activity, the security of this and any other website is never completely secure. Do not disclose unnecessary confidential information about yourself on this site. If you believe there has been any malicious activity because of your visit to our site, please notify our privacy officer immediately.
- You may be asked to provide personal information (name, company name, title, phone, and email address) when you register for or are added to our mailing list for events.
- This information is not distributed to any external organization or individual and is only reviewed by those noted above for ensuring the accuracy of our database. This occurs on at least an annual basis.
- If we have any questions about the accuracy of your personal information, we may contact you by phone or email and leave you a confidential message.
- When you register for an event, you are linked to a secure Pay Pal site where you will be asked to enter your personal information including credit card details. Simplify Prior Authorization, staff and advisory board members are NOT privy to your credit card information, only that you have registered for an event or signed up as a member. If you prefer to pay via phone or cheque, please contact Denise Balch at info@simplifypriorauth.ca or 905 220 4260.

- If you complete our online event evaluation we may ask you to provide your name, email address and phone number. This is optional and this information will not be distributed to anyone outside of Simplify Prior Authorization staff.
- Simplify Prior Authorization and any software that we use for event registration or payment may use "cookies" to facilitate your website experience. Disabling this may limit your ability to navigate our site or other sites.

Questions or comments regarding this policy, or the administration of PIPEDA should be directed to Denise Balch at info@simplifypriorauth.ca or 905 220 4260.

Copyright/Permission to Reproduce

Materials on this web site were produced and/or compiled by Simplify Prior Authorization for the following purposes:

- Providing resources and information for patients, patient support, prescribers, plan sponsors, and payers regarding the private payer prior authorization process.
- An education source about prior authorization via blogs, podcasts, or webinars. Including registration fees and online registration
- A resource for information regarding electronic prior authorization and its implementation.

Simplify Prior Authorization has made reasonable effort to ensure the accuracy of the information on this site, however we cannot guarantee the accuracy of posted content or linked resources. Users should exercise their own due diligence before using or distributing any materials or information obtained through or on this site in whole or in part.

Users may use or reproduce information on this site, provided that presentations, blogs, podcasts or documents distributed to third parties obtained from this site should be complete, and the source acknowledged.

Reproduction of Logos and Branding

The Simplify Prior Authorization logos and branding may not be reproduced, copied, or otherwise used without the express written permission of Denise Balch, president and principal consultant of Connex Health and owner of Simplify Prior Authorization. You can reach her at info@simplifypriorauth.ca or by calling 905 220 4260.

Commercial Reproduction

Reproduction of multiple copies of newsletters and other materials on this site, in whole or in part, for the purposes of commercial redistribution is prohibited except with written permission from Denise Balch. You may contact her by email or phone as noted above.

Third Party Materials

Some of the materials and graphics or branding on the Simplify Prior Authorization site are subject to copyrights held by other organizations. The use of these is restricted and Simplify Prior Authorization is in no way authorized to grant permission for their use other than on the Simplify Prior Authorization site. Users should apply for permission for the rights to use graphics or branding from their source prior to reproducing them.

Hyperlinks

Users of this site should be aware that the links provided by us on this site, particularly in Resources content, are not under our control and are provided solely for information and the convenience of our users. Simplify Prior Authorization is not responsible for the accuracy or credibility of the content on these sites.

Comments and Interaction

Please be professional and respectful in any email to Simplify Prior Authorization, about Simplify Prior Authorization, and in session evaluations.

At its sole discretion, Simplify Prior Authorization reserves the right to remove from our mailing list or block content to any person or organization that communicates or posts inappropriate comments about Simplify Prior Authorization and the work undertaken on behalf of Simplify Prior Authorization. This applies to any breach made via social media, in person, or in writing. This includes content that, in the sole opinion of Simplify Prior Authorization:

- Could be considered damaging to the reputation of Simplify Prior Authorization our staff, or members of our advisory boards in their capacity with Simplify Prior Authorization
